

NJ State AFL-CIO E-Activist Network

Friday, February 25, 2011 – New Jersey State House – At 12:00 Noon

We urge you, your friends, and family to stand in solidarity with the Wisconsin workers at the State House this Friday, and to be a part of history. Momentum is building across the nation, and with worldwide attention on Wisconsin, this has become a defining moment for the labor movement. WE ARE ONE, and together we will fight as one on behalf of workers' rights, sending a message that union busting is not a budget solution and that those who created the economic meltdown are the ones who should be held responsible.

Scheduled speakers for the NJ Unity Rally include:

- National AFL-CIO President Richard Trumka
- NJ State AFL-CIO President Charles Wowkanech and Secretary-Treasurer Laurel Brennan.
- National Communications Workers of America President Larry Cohen.
- International Union of Painters & Allied Trades President James Williams
- National Education Association Vice President Lilly Eskelsen
- NJEA President Barbara Keshishian
- NJ NAACP President James Harris.
- President of HPAE & AFT International Vice President Ann Twomey
- Wisconsin State AFL-CIO Secretary-Treasurer Stephanie Bloomingdale and two Wisconsin workers, Arlyn Halvorson, AFSCME D.C. 40 and Susan Blaustein, AFSCME D.C. 48
